

College Times
Entertaining the world one student at a time

About Us • Advertising Information • Where to Pick Us Up • Contact Us

Affordable tuition

Home » Calendar

Swanky Splash

Lindsey Kupfer
Issue date: 6/25/09 Section: Calendar

Page 1 of 1

Are you bored sitting at home on Saturday afternoons waiting for the clubs to open at night? Are you tired of your community pool being surrounded by children and people who don't want to party?

Here's the solution: a Saturday pool party.

Aloft Tempe invites you to its weekly pool party to relax and celebrate summer with a lot of drinking and dancing.

Every Saturday the hotel offers great drink specials at the pool and features a live DJ to bring the party to life.

The minds behind Aloft Tempe didn't think twice about the recession with its trendy style, either. The new hotel opened in February just minutes away from Mill Avenue, creating the perfect hot spot for ASU students and local Tempe residents.

The hotel has two lounges to grab food and drinks during the party. The contemporary re:fuel dining area is open 24-hours and serves everything from salads and sandwiches to snacks and desserts. The W xyz bar offers all kinds of drinks, including signature cocktails and pints of beer. This fashionable hotel provides a great location to relax with friends or meet new people.

So whether you want to get a tan or you just want to start drinking early, Aloft Tempe is the place to be on Saturday afternoons this summer.

Tempe Aloft, 951 E. Playa Del Norte Drive, Tempe, 480.621.3300.
Ongoing Saturdays, noon to 6 p.m., Free for guests and $5 for non-guests

SECTIONS

- Blog
- Travel
- Calendar
- News
- Six
- Music
- Movies
- Nightlife
- Visuals
- Rec: News

POLL

A month into summer, which blockbuster was the most disappointing?

- A-Men Origins: Wolverine
- Star Trek
- Angels and Demons
- Terminator Salvation
- Night at the Museum: Battle of the Smithsonian
- Up

Submit Vote View Results

BLOG

- Call another
- Top 10 Things I Envy About Hobbies
- Cookbook fix
- Are college sports really pure anymore?
- Meeting the Parents
- Question: Why do blog comments turn so nasty?
- Recession: Where's the money, America, staying?
- The Robot Patrol
- The guys out there: maybe at the US Open?
- Cartersville
- Top 10 books I was writing

Swanky Splash

Lindsey Kupfer
Issue date: 6/25/09 Section: Calendar
Digg submit

Print Email Article Tools

Page 1 of 1

Are you bored sitting at home on Saturday afternoons waiting for the clubs to open at night? Are you tired of your community pool being surrounded by children and people who don't want to party?

Media Credit: Ryan Ruiz

Here's the solution: a Saturday pool party!

Aloft Tempe invites you to its weekly pool party to relax and celebrate summer with a lot of drinking and dancing.

Every Saturday the hotel offers great drink specials at the pool and features a live DJ to bring the party to life.

The minds behind Aloft Tempe didn't think twice about the recession with its trendy style, either. The new hotel opened in February just minutes away from Mill Avenue, creating the perfect hot spot for ASU students and local Tempe residents.

The hotel has two lounges to grab food and drinks during the party. The contemporary re:fuel dining area is open 24-hours and serves everything from salads and sandwiches to snacks and desserts. The W xyz bar offers all kinds of drinks, including signature cocktails and pints of beer. This fashionable hotel provides a great location to relax with friends or meet new people.

So whether you want to get a tan or you just want to start drinking early, Aloft Tempe is the place to be on Saturday afternoons this summer.

Tempe Aloft, 951 E. Playa Del Norte Drive, Tempe, 480.621.3300,
Ongoing Saturdays, noon to 6 p.m., Free for guests and $5 for non-guests